

Terms & Conditions

Lessons will be given on a term by term basis, following the local state school term dates.

It is expected the student will attend all scheduled lessons within the term. Cancelled lessons must be paid for.

No fees will be refunded except where the teacher cannot give a scheduled lesson and it cannot be rescheduled by mutual agreement. Any fees paid in advance for the lesson will be returned or used as credit against future unpaid lessons.

Fees must be paid in advance for a half-term course of lessons. There is no facility for payment in arrears or extending credit.

In the event that students wish to cease lessons, a full half term's notice must be given to the teacher, or else payment of a half term's fees will be charged in lieu of notice.

The pupil is expected to practise for a minimum of five days a week (preferably every day if possible). This is an important factor in their rate of progress. A suitable instrument must be available for them ie. a digital keyboard or a piano.

Please be punctual dropping off and collecting your child so as not to interrupt the next lesson. Parents are welcome to sit in on lessons but if you have other children with you please ensure that they sit quietly during the lesson.

I have read and accept the Terms & Conditions for my (or my child's) piano lessons.
